One bright feature of the practice yesterday afternoon was the return of Cosello, one of the quarter backs who was injured in the game against Pittsburg. Although the first afternoon out, he put up a brilliant game on the scrubs, and made several substantial gains against the 'varsity, besides running the team in an excellent manner.

Haggerty was likewise out, and showed a great amount of speed in running down on punts, but Trainer Quirk did not allow him to get into the scrimmage. During an hour's scrimmage, during which each team was on the defensive for half the time, the 'varsity scored on the scrubs, while the latter did not seriously threaten the regulars' goal.
